

Hayswood Theatre to present And Then There Were None

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 09 September 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 09 September 2009 08:35

Hayswood Theatre in Corydon, Indiana, will open the fall production, Agatha Christie's well known murder mystery, "And Then There Were None" on September 18. Originally called "Ten Little Indians", the story centers around eight guests who are invited to attend a dinner party at a strange little country house on a remote island off the coast of Devon. The host is mysteriously absent and only the cook and the butler are there to greet them. Very soon the guests realize they have all been tricked into attending the gathering. Unable to get back to the mainland, all ten present find themselves in grave danger.

Directed by Ellen Hanaver, the cast includes Patty McClure, Shelley Hanaver-Torrez, Jon Driver, Lance Ponder, Liz Swarens, Charlie Swarens, David De Spain, Brigham Callam, Ian Ellis, Mark Northup, Kathy Norton, and Dana Taylor. The show will run September 18, 19, and 20, September 25, 26, 27, and October 2, 3, and 4. Friday and Saturday shows are at 8 p.m. and Sunday shows are at 2 p.m. Tickets are still $10 and $12. Please call 738-2138 for reservations.

Join St. Mary of the Knobs to celebrate St. Patrick's Day in style! Their 4th Annual Reverse Raffle is set for Friday, March 13 at 7:30 p.m. Only 100 tickets sold in increments of $100, $50, and $25. Total cash prizes of $5,500 – even losers have a second chance to win!