The University of Louisville women's basketball team is coming to town!

Spots for students in the free basketball clinic with the notable U of L team at the YMCA of Southern Indiana's Floyd County Branch in New Albany on Monday, December 28, filled rapidly.

But the general public will have an opportunity to meet and greet the team members and head coach Jeff Walz afterward that day at Steinert's Grill and Pub, 401 E. Main St., between noon and 1 p.m.

Individuals and families of all ages may drop by to meet the area athletes and also dine in the grill on their own if they wish. Reservations are not necessary.

For more information, call Amber Ridings, the YMCA's teen, family, and sports director, at (812) 283-9622 / Ext. 121.
