

?Providence Players present two shows

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 16 July 2008 00:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 16 July 2008 10:23

?The Providence Players will present two shows this summer. Tickets are general admission and are available for $10 at the door the day of the performance at the Robinson Performing Arts Center at PHS.

The Odd Couple, Female Version by Neil Simon will take place July 25, 26, and 27 at 7p.m.

Unger and Madison are at it again! In the female version, it's Florence Unger and Olive Madison! With their eclectic circle of friends, the girls get together for their weekly game of Trivial Pursuit. When it is discovered that the classy, uptight Florence becomes separated from her husband, the slobby, comfortable Olive invites Florence to move in. Hilarious chaos erupts as the girls try to live together. Join Florence and Olive as they hang out with the girls and even try to land dates with the hot, Spanish Constazuela brothers.

On Golden Pond by Ernest Thompson will take place on August 1, 2 and 3 at 7p.m.

Ethel and Normal Thayer are going to spend their forty-fourth fabulous summer on Golden Pond. This year seems to be a little different. Old memories begin to fade, old friends have gone, and new faces have arrived on Golden Pond. Norman has a very dark, quick-witted humor toward death that helps him to keep moving but celebrating his 80th birthday and the fear of forgetting starts to take it's toll. When their daughter, who he has been at odds with since growing up, shows up with her fiancée and his son, we learn that it's never too late to give up on hope, life, and life.