

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 24 March 2010 00:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 24 March 2010 13:27

Horseshoe Southern Indiana and LifeSpan Resources have partnered to raise funds for programs to promote independent living for people of all ages. The 4th annual chili cook off, Horseshoe Chili Cook Off will be held at The Showroom at Horseshoe Southern Indiana on Tuesday, March 30 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., featuring Barry Bernson as the Master of Ceremonies for the evening.

Representing all four counties that receive programs such as Meals On Wheels through LifeSpan Resources, Celebrity Chefs will be vying for the Top Pepper award. Representing Clark County is Mayor Galligan and, Sheriff Rodden; Floyd County is Chief Juliott and Sheriff Mills; Harrison County is Buck Mathes, and Terry Miller; Lt. Hickerson of the Indiana State Police and reigning "Top Pepper" Scott County is Mayor Graham.

Silent Auction items will include: Reds vs Cubs premium seats with limo bus ride to game package, Coach Crean signed IU basketball, IU striped warm up pants, Beijo Dream Catcher Purse and Autographed Peter Frampton guitar

Celebrity Judges will consist of: Eileen Moore, VP/Asst. General Manager, Horseshoe Southern Indiana; Sister Barbara Ann Zeller, Providence Self Sufficiency Ministries; Judge Davis, Harrison County; and Judge Orth, Judge Granger and Mayor England, Floyd County.

Participants will have the opportunity to sample each chili and bid on silent auction items. Horseshoe Southern Indiana will be providing a chili dinner and a cash bar. Tickets are $20 and can be purchased at LifeSpan Resources, located at 33 State Street, Third Floor, in New Albany or by calling 948-8330 or toll-free at 888-948-8330. Tickets will also be available at the door.

All proceeds will benefit the frail homebound elderly of our community who are in need of services.

For further information please contact Julie Taylor Wilson at LifeSpan Resources.