

Borden Valley Days this weekend

Last Updated Tuesday, 05 June 2012 14:44

The Borden Valley Days Festival is set for this weekend.

The festival has been expanded to a two-day event starting on Friday.

Friday's activities include a chicken barbeque sponsored by the Borden-Wood Township Fire Dept., Flea market/Community yard sale, Live Entertainment including Karoke, and Bingo.

Saturday's events start early with the Hot air balloon launch & 5K run/walk.

The parade follows shortly after highlighted by Grand Marshall Scott Davenport coach of the Belarmine Knights.

Other events on Saturday include the Prince/Princess contest, Rubber duck races, Euchre tournament, and Borden's own Ugliest Woman contest.

For more information and registration forms visit us at www.bordenindiana.com.