

Sunday Celebration at Camp Cedarbrook

Last Updated Tuesday, 05 June 2012 14:45

On Sunday, June 10th from 3-5:30 p.m., the community is invited to Camp Cedarbrook in Lanesville to celebrate recent renovations.

Come out, eat, socialize, worship and celebrate the attractive new look!

An all you can eat meal of hand coated Pollock filet, French fries, coleslaw, baked beans and beverage will be served for $8 (kids five and under – free will donation).

An outdoors worship service will follow at 6 p.m.

After many years in a state of needed repair, the flagpole has been restored. Please join us at the beginning of the dinner as Andrew Lash, future Eagle Scout, proudly raises the American Flag once again.

Continued on page 6

Sunday . . .

Continued from page 1

In appreciation, all veterans and military personnel will receive $1 off their meal.

Camp Cedarbrook is located at 6865 Corydon Ridge Road, just one mile off of I-64, exit 113. For more information about the services or facilities, visit www.campcedarbrook.com or Facebook.com/campcedarbrook.