The Junior All-Stars will play two games against the Kentucky Junior All-Stars on June 7 and June 8. The sites and times for these games will be announced later.

The Junior All-Stars also will play two games against the IndyStar.com Indiana All-Star senior girls on June 10 and June 12. The sites and times for these game also will be announced later.

The players listed as core group players will play in all four games.

The players listed as North group players will join the core group for one game against Kentucky and one game against the Indiana seniors.

The players listed as South group players will join the core group for the other game against Kentucky and the other game against the Indiana seniors.

Assignments for the North and South groups for which dates will be made later.

The Junior All-Star team is determined by the 22-member Indiana Basketball Coaches Association boys all-state panel in conjunction with its selection of the IBCA/Subway Underclass All-State Team. The selection process allows all IBCA-member head coaches the opportunity to vote for top players from schools on the traditional regional structure of the non-class tournament format. Representatives from each of those 16 regional areas, plus six at-large representatives from IHSAA districts (two each from District 1, District 2 and District 3), then meet to review those votes and finalize the selections.

A list of those chosen as 2013 boys Junior All-Stars follows.
