

Clark County Youth Shelter's Family Fun Festival Saturday

Written by George Browning
Wednesday, 15 May 2013 00:00 -

Summer break is almost here and what better way to celebrate than at the Clark County Youth Shelter's annual Family Fun Festival. The Family Fun Festival will be held in conjunction with the Howard Steamboat Museum's Chautauqua on Saturday, May 18, from 11am-3pm at the Howard Steamboat Museum/Port Fulton Park.

The fun festival features carnival style games, a dunking booth, face painting, inflatable, food and much more family-oriented fun. This is an event for the entire family. Games and food booths are ticket based with tickets at $1.00 each. All proceeds benefit the Clark County Shelter & Family Services, Inc.

This event would not have been possible without the support of sponsors: Clark Memorial Hospital, Voss Clark, Altrusa of Jeffersonville, Bowles Mattress Company, Centra Credit Union, Charlestown Lions Club, Clark County REMC, First Savings Bank, KFC, Mills, Biggs, Haire, and Reisert, New Washington State Bank, The Marketing Company, Your Community Bank, and WARE.

About Clark County Youth Shelter

The overall mission of the Clark County Youth Shelter and Family Services, Inc. is "to serve youth and families in a safe and caring environment." The core of all the proposed projects is service to youth and families in need. By developing these important assets and families to build upon, our community has a greater chance for success in future generations. For more information about the Youth Shelter, please visit www.ccysfs.org.