Growing a deeper relationship with God and gaining a better understanding of how the stories of the Bible relate to one another are two major benefits of a pilot series this fall hosted by Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church at its Grant Line campus, 4810 Grant Line Road in New Albany, Ind.

The public is invited to join in the Disciple Bible Study Fast Track Experience that has not yet been released to the public, according to Peter Curts, teaching pastor, who will conduct the class on Sunday evenings from Sept. 8 through Nov. 24. Each session will begin with worship at 5, followed by gathering and refreshments before the study portion at 5:45. In addition to receiving tools to be able to connect the stories of Scripture, participants will engage in table discussions. Childcare will be provided.

The cost of the class portion of the experience is $40 for materials. Registration is available on the church's website at www.wesleychapel.org or by emailing Peter Curts at pastorcurts@wesleychapel.org.

PRECEPT BIBLE STUDY

The nationally recognized, interdenominational Precept Bible Study will be offered this fall at Wesley Chapel's Hwy. 150 campus at 2100 Hwy. 150 in Floyds Knobs, Ind. The study of I Thessalonians will focus on principles of exemplary Christian living, spiritual warfare as sparked by the presence of the Gospel in the world, and God's ultimate rescue, known as the rapture.

Thursday morning classes are from 9 to 11:30 from Sept. 12 through Nov. 21. If they wish, participants may pick up books ($24.75) at the church between 10 and 11:30 a.m. on Thursday, Sept. 5. Certified instructors for this series are Rhonda Alstott, Ann Coates, Beth Hussung, Marcia Latimer, and Connie Newbanks, and they encourage those from all congregations to enroll.
