The Borden boys' basketball team continues to impress following a season where they won the Indiana High School Athletic Association's top prize in Class A.

All this year's team has done is get off to a 9-1 start and a number two ranking in the Class A Associated Press' poll.

The Braves sit behind Barr-Reeve, a team they would likely face in the regional should both advance out of their respective sectionals.

The Borden girls and the Eastern Lady Musketeers are also in the others receiving votes section in their respective class polls.

All three teams, the Borden boys and the Eastern and Borden girls' teams are back in action this week with a busy slate of games.
