This March, the adventurous and hilarious musical, THE SCARLET PIMPERNEL, comes to the Floyd Central High School stage! Full of suspense, hilarious characters, and beautiful music, THE SCARLET PIMPERNEL is a "must-see."

This musical was widely acclaimed when it opened on Broadway and toured the United States in the late 1990's, hailed as "Astonishing!" by the New York Times. "My favorite thing about THE SCARLET PIMPERNEL is that it blends several different styles of musical theatre together seamlessly," says senior Collin Jackson, who plays Percy Blakeney (also known as The Scarlet Pimpernel). "The show contains infectious music as well as unexpected comedy surrounding rather deep characters. The combination of all three of these aspects, the music, the comedy, and the complex characters, make the show a truly unique piece of musical theatre." Known as "Broadway's most intriguing musical," this show is certain to delight!
