Pekin United Methodist Church will host a meeting for those dealing with addiction.

The meeting can't be called Alcoholics Anonymous, because you must be a charter to use that name.

The meetings will be Tuesday's at 7 p.m. during the month of April to gauge the level of need and interest in the Pekin area.

The meetings are free and are open to everyone.

For more information, call the church at 967-4682.
