The Dare to Dream Floyd Central Theatre Arts Summer Camp 2014 will be June 30-July 4 frp, 9:00AM – 12:00PM Daily.

The camp will highlight the skills of Acting • Dance • Singing • Puppetry • Technical Theatre.

Join Floyd Central's best theatre students and staff for this exciting week of imagination, creativity, and adventure! Campers will participate in a variety of workshops throughout the week, led by members of Floyd Central's award winning Theatre Arts program. Grouped with other kids in their age group, campers will get hands on experience with a variety of theatrical activities, including acting, dance, singing, puppetry, technical theatre, and more!

The camp will even focus some time on advanced audition techniques for older students as well as on songs from THE WIZARD OF OZ for younger students who are looking forward to auditioning for munchkins in our production of that show this fall.

Whether you have lots of experience in theatre or just want to try it out, this week is sure to be fun for all!

The camp is for students entering GRADES 3-9.

The cost is $100 per child.

Additional siblings receive $25 off.
