Between 9 p.m. On Wednesday night, February 11, and 2 a.m. Thursday morning, four troopers from the Indiana State Police Post at Sellersburg conducted a saturation patrol targeting impaired and dangerous drivers on State Road 111 in Floyd County. During the five hour period, troopers issued 28 traffic tickets, 11 warnings and arrested six impaired drivers. Troopers also made three criminal arrests.

Indiana State Police are committed to traffic safety and will continue to conduct saturation patrols to apprehend intoxicated drivers and to deter others from drinking and driving.
