On Monday, August 3, Dr. Bruce Hibbard, current assistant superintendent for the MSD of Washington Township School District, was named Superintendent for the New Albany-Floyd County Consolidated School Corporation at a special school board meeting.

Dr. Hibbard joins approximately 12,000 students and 1,870 employees. Dr. Hibbard will begin work immediately. The NAFC corporation is home to 12 elementary schools, one pre-K through 3rd grade Academy, three middle schools, two high schools, one vocational school and one alternative school. The corporation is also the 17th largest corporation in Indiana.

The MSD of Washington Township has a total student enrollment of 10,500, housing 10 schools.

Dr. Hibbard, who obtained a Ph.D. From Indiana State University in 2005, has experience as a teacher, assistant principal, principal and assistant superintendent. From 1987 to 1988, Dr. Hibbard taught Social Studies in the Indianapolis Public Schools; from 1988 to 1998 he taught Social Studies at Frankfort Middle School; from 1998 to 2000 he served as the assistant principal at Frankfort Senior High School; from 2000 to 2001 he served as the assistant principal at Noblesville High School; from 2001 to 2006 he served as principal at Northridge Middle School and from 2006 to the present he served as assistant superintendent for the MSD of Washington Township in Indianapolis.

Roger Whaley, School Board President, said, "We are very pleased that Dr. Hibbard is here to lead our educational family. He has the experience, enthusiasm and work ethic to make a difference in the lives of many students. He is the best fit for our district."
