

In the afternoon hours of Thursday February 16th, officers from the F.B.I. Safe Streets Task Force, Kentucky State Police, U. S. Marshal's Fugitive Task Force, (Great Lakes Region), and the U.S. Marshal's Service, (Louisville, Kentucky Office), arrested Ronald F. Graham, 38, from New Albany, IN. He was arrested after a foot chase in Meade County, Kentucky. Ronald F. Graham had been able to elude law enforcement officers at least six times in the past few months.

Ronald F. Graham was being sought after numerous criminal charges were filed against him in Floyd and Washington Counties in Indiana. His charges in Floyd County are Residential Entry, D Felony, (Two Counts); Receiving Stolen Property, D Felony; Possession of Methamphetamine Precursors, C Felony and Possession of Methamphetamine, D Felony. His charges in Washington County are Burglary, B Felony; Criminal Confinement B Felony; and Domestic Battery, A Misdemeanor.

Ronald F. Graham was incarcerated in Kentucky where he is facing several charges and awaiting extradition to Indiana. A photo of the arrested must be obtained from the Kentucky authorities. Contact Kentucky State Police Post #4 for further information.

Officers from the Indiana State Police, Floyd County Sheriff's Department and New Albany City Police Department are assigned to some of the federal agencies listed above.