

Billy Graham's Samaritan's Purse, an international Christian relief organization, is currently accepting request from those affected by the storms of March 2.

The group is looking to help with cleaning up debris, tree work, tarping an recovering and packing up personal belongings.

All services provided are free to homeowners who have little or no insurance.

Request are handled on a first-come, first-serve basis, depending on need an volunteer availability.

Those requesting assistance are encouraged to contact the disaster relief unit that is stationed at Northside Christian Church. The church is located at 4407 Charlestown Road in New Albany.

For more information, call the relief unit at 812-542-4051.

The group in non-denominational and has been active since 1970.