ELISHA EDWARD "JUNIOR" DEAN, JR, 78, died Monday, March 5, 2012 at his home near Madison.

He was born December 5, 1933 in Hendricks County, Ind., the son of Elisha Edward Dean, Sr. and Agnew Grubert Dean. He was raised in the Brooksbury Baptist Church. Junior was first united in marriage to Patsy Mae Wingler on Feb. 16, 1952, this union was blessed with one daughter and five sons. He began working for his father at Dean's Auto Parts in Madison, Indiana and in 1954 he purchased it with his brother Jim. They renamed the business Dean Bros. Body Shop and operated that business until 1975. He then opened Dean's Repair Shop and operated it until 1983. From 1983 until present he operated A-1 General. On August 14, 1976 he was united in marriage to Emma J. Parker at the Paynesville Christian Church. This union was blessed with one son. Junior loved to hunt and had moved out to his farm 12 years ago and enjoyed living in the country. He enjoyed hunting the deer there and doing a little fishing. He enjoyed traveling to Canada and really enjoyed the World's Fair in 1967.
