REVEREND SHELDON LEROY GARRIOTT, 79, Franklin, died November 28, 2012 in Indianapolis Community North Hospital after a short illness.

Born in Washington County in 1933, the son of Homer Ambrose Garriott and Christina Inez Matney Garriott, he was the youngest of three brothers. The eldest, Kendall Eugene, preceded him in death in 1979 while living on the family farm. Lloyd Byron (Barney), presently lives on that Hoosier Heritage Farm. He graduated from Salem High School in 1952 and Indiana Central College in 1957. He became an ordained Methodist Minister after graduating from Garrett Theological Seminary in 1963. He served churches in Central and Northern Indiana from 1954 until 1974. Since that time he continued as a United Methodist Interim Pastor in Central Indiana, while being gainfully employed by various companies. He was employed by the Marion County Health Department for 10 years and his sales and marketing career included insurance, retirement facilities for Presbyterian Housing, and a decade of industrial sales for American-Newlong.

He was a life long student of the Word of God. He was an accomplished naturalist and photographer who's beautiful photos were published by the Hoosier Environmental Council. He also provided environmental slideshows set to music for programs.

In high school and college he excelled as a Future Farmer of America, in Debate Team Competition and Cross Country, setting individual state records. In the 1980s he began running again and participated in local events. Reading became a special joy in recent years and he read up to 100 books a year for several years. A member of Southport United Methodist Church, he enjoyed visitation ministry and taught a Sunday School Class for over 18 years. He is survived by his wife of 57 years Noreen Quarles Garriott of Scottsburg; daughter Susan Garriott Cantrell (husband, Clay), son Mark Garriott, and grandchildren Christopher Cantrell (wife, Erin), Joshua Cantrell (wife, Jessie), Lisa Cantrell Clow (husband Austin) and Lindsey Garriott.

Preceding him in death is stepmother Ruth McCoskey Garriott and surviving are stepbrother John McCoskey and stepsister Wilda Meeks, both of Scottsburg.

Calling will be held from 5-8 pm Friday, December 14th at Singleton Community Mortuary and Memorial Center, 7602 Madison Avenue, Indianapolis. A Worship and Celebration service will be held at 3 pm Saturday, December 15th at Southport United Methodist Church, 1947 E. Southport Road, Indianapolis.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to The American Cancer Society or United Methodist Global Missions.
