Outdoor breakfasts at lake June 26 and July 3

Outdoor breakfasts hosted by Friends of Hardy Lake at the lake's shelterhouse overlooking the beach will be held on Saturday, June 26 and on Saturday, July 2, the public to enjoy.

The group plans and serves all-you-can-eat meals from 7 to 10 a.m. on certain Saturdays during the spring, summer and fall at the large shelterhouse to raise funds to support the Dwight Chamberlain Raptor Center near the lake.

Cost is $6 per adult and $3 for children ages three to 12. Youngsters under age three will eat free.

Other dates for the breakfasts include July 31, August 28, September 4 on the Labor Day weekend, September 25 during Hardy Lake's Raptor Days and October 30 during the lake's Fall Fun Days weekend.

Murphy photo exhibit to end on June 26

Local photographer Edith Murphy's collection of notable homes in Scott County will be on exhibit at the Scott County Heritage Center and Museum in Scottsburg through Saturday, June 26.

A recent open house to celebrate the display attracted over 60 people. Her photos brought back many memories as did her unique collection of old cameras, many of which she used during her long career.

Murphy is now planning a display of photos of commercial buildings, which the museum will offer to the public later this summer.

The county museum, located at 1050 South Main Street, is open from Tuesday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Admission is free.

Call staff at 752-1050 or visit the website at scottcountyheritagemuseum.org for more
