

Scottsburg band heading to semi-state

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 19 October 2010 00:00 - Last Updated Tuesday, 19 October 2010 11:08

The Scottsburg Band of Warriors participated in Regional Competition on Saturday, October 16, at Center Grove High School. The band received a "Gold" rating and is a Semi-State competitor as well.

Members of the band are: senior drum line members Tara Morris, Domanique Dobson and Alec Branstetter, director Reid Young, director Tim Johnston and drum majors Christopher Morris, Elizabeth Stivers and Krisann Bostic. In addition to competing on Saturday, October 23, at 2:44 at Plainfield for semi-state, the band will host a community performance and cookout Friday, October 22 at 6 p.m. at the high school. Everyone is invited to attend.

The Scottsburg Band of Warriors are going to present to the community their 2010 marching show "Fate Knocking" this Friday October 22, at 6 p.m. at the high school band field. It is free admission to the public. Afterwards will be a chance to grab some food and mingle with the individual band members. It is truly a celebration of a great group of musicians. They will head on to Plainfield on Saturday to compete at Semi State competition.