

Probation Check in Scott County Yields Meth and $20,000

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 26 January 2011 00:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 26 January 2011 14:33

Scott County-In the afternoon hours of yesterday's date, troopers from the Indiana State Police Post at Sellersburg and a probation officer from the Scott County Probation Department made a Probation Home Visit to Brian Bowling's residence located 6025 North Jack Morgan Road near Austin in Scott County.

While doing the home visit troopers located Methamphetamine, handguns and over $20,000.00 in U.S. currency. Also at the home was Norine F. Harrington, 52, from Walnut Street in Scottsburg, IN. While interviewing Norine F. Harrington troopers located Methamphetamine and Schedule Three Controlled Substances on her person.

Troopers arrested Brian K. Bowling, aka, "Egg Head", 46, from 6025 North Jack Morgan Road, Austin, IN and charged him with Possession of Methamphetamine, B Felony, Possession of a Firearm by a Serious Violent Offender, B Felony and Maintaining a Common Nuisance, D Felony.

Troopers also arrested Norine F. Harrington and charged her with Possession of Methamphetamine, B Felony and Possession of a Schedule Three Controlled Substance, D Felony.

Both were incarcerated in the Scott County Jail awaiting their first court appearance. This investigation is continuing.