

Judges for the 2012 Little Miss of Scott County and Little Master of Scott County contest certainly have their work cut out for them.

There are eight young men and 18 young ladies entered in this year's competition. The program will be offered as one of the first events of the 2012 Scott County Fair on Sunday evening, July 15.

Sponsored and organized by the Pilot Club of Scott County, the contest is always a great draw, especially since it is presented in the air-conditioned and handicap-accessible confines of McClain Hall at Scottsburg High School.

The program will begin at 6 p.m., and tickets will be available at the fairgrounds office and at the door.

Children entered in the contest will be judged on their appearance and personality. All are asked to report to Pilot Club members stationed at McClain Hall at least by 5:45 p.m. on July 15.

Contestants will be taken to a secure, chaperoned area. Parents and relatives will not be permitted to accompany children backstage.

Those dynamic personalities entered in the 2012 Little Master competition include:

KAVAN BRAMBLE, 4, is the son of Danili and Shane Bramble of Lexington. Kavan has three pet dogs, Charley, Darby and Jackie. He likes to swim, play with robots and jump on his trampoline. He also enjoys beating up his big brother!

BRYSON BROCK, 4, is the son of Samantha and Travis Brock of Austin. Bryson loves to watch "Toy Story," so one of his favorite activities is dressing up and acting like one of those characters, Buzz Lightyear. Outside, Bryson enjoys riding four-wheelers with his dad. He has a dog, Zero, as his buddy.

SPENCER GLOVER, 6, is the son of Maria Smith and Jesse Glover of Scottsburg. One of his favorite things to do is wave a flag when music is presented at his church. He loves all the characters in the "cars" movies, especially Lightning McQueen. Spencer has a dog named Chico.
