

Lexington Old Settlers June 14-15

Written by George Browning
Wednesday, 05 June 2013 12:51 -

The Lexington Old Settlers Festival will be held June 14 and 15 at the Lexington Town Park and is hosted by the Lexington Volunteer Fire Department and the Scott County Visitors Commission.

On Friday, June 14, Karaoke Contest and live music will be featured from 5 to 11 p.m. and the Birds of Prey program will also be featured by the officials from Hardy Lake DNR.

The festival on Saturday will be from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. with the Englishton Park 5K walk at 8:15 a.m. and the parade at 11:30 a.m. Music will begin at 3 p.m. featuring the groups and singers: Fortress, Praise Awaits, The Lasting Hope, Garrett Godsey, Jason Dunn, and Rusty Martin.

There will be food, merchants, free music, kiddie rides and games.

For more information contact Beth Petty at 1-812-722-3365 or bethpetty73@gmail.com