? The fall installment, or Part B, of property tax statements will be due at the Scott County Treasurer's Office by Monday, November 10, Treasurer Iva Gasaway has advised.

To make payments, persons may bring their B statements to the office, located on the first floor of the Courthouse on its east side. Hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Those who prefer to pay via mail should send their payments in check or money order form to the Treasurer's Office. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope to have a receipt mailed back. If no envelope is enclosed, a receipt will not be returned. Postmark dates will determine on-time payments.

Property owners may also take their "B" statements and payments to either Stock Yard Bank or Indiana Bank and Trust, the former Home Federal Bank, in Austin. Both banks are authorized to accept payments.

Credit cards and debit cards are not accepted at the Treasurer's Office to pay property taxes.

Those with questions may call the Treasurer's Office at 752-8414 for more information.
