

Benefit auction for teenager with cancer August 22

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 19 August 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 19 August 2009 08:44

Angie Lewis of Scott County has announced that a special benefit will be held for her niece, Kali Burton, who has been diagnosed with a rare cancer called myoepithelial carcinoma.

A benefit auction will be held on Saturday, August 22, at 10 a.m. at 42 Hicks Street in North Vernon.

Proceeds will help Burton with the cost of the extension treatments and traveling that will take place in the future.

Numerous items will be available for the auction. Those wishing to make a donation may call 1-812-764-4056 or 1-812-767-8174.

She is the 13-year-old daughter of Steve and Rhonda Burton of Columbus and granddaughter of Dale and Joe Burton and Jerry and Brenda Burton Dean.