

Louisville man dies in one vehicle accident in Charlestown

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 02 September 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 02 September 2009 08:19

The Charlestown Police Department is investigating a one vehicle fatality that occurred Saturday morning at approximately 6:05 a.m. just east of the intersection of State Road 62 and State Road 3 in Charlestown.

Three adult males were transported from the accident scene to the U of L Trauma Center in critical condition.

Two of the three are currently believed to have been ejected from a red 2004 Ford Mustang during the incident; the third male was extricated from the Mustang by Charlestown Fire and Rescue.

Robert D. Reynolds, 19, of Louisville, was later pronounced dead at U of L.

Cory B. Flint, 26, of Madison and Brent Hamilton, 18, of Shepherdsville, Kentucky, at last press time remain in critical condition at U of L.

Excessive speed is being investigated as a possible contributing factor of the crash. No other information was available for release as of press time.

Anyone who may have been near the intersection and witnessed the crash is asked to contact Detective Ledbetter with the Charlestown Police Department, 812-256-6345.