

Celebrate Memphis 2009 to be held October 3

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 02 September 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 02 September 2009 08:21

The first ever festival to celebrate Memphis will be held on Saturday, October 3 from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. The festival will be held on Blue Lick Road at the open field east of I-65 Truck Sales, right of Flea Market Drive.

The event will offer hamburgers, chips, drinks and a lot more food available for sale. Free hot dogs will be offered between 2 and 4 p.m. (up to 500 hot dogs). Live music will be on stage throughout the festival with more than eight bands to be featured.

One hundred booth spaces are also available. Both rental is $15. You may receive a discount if you reserve four booth spaces together. Four booth spaces are available for $45. All proceeds of the booth rental goes to the Union Township Beautification project.

Other highlights of the festival will include: XCW wrestling, rides for all ages, five balloon glow, Buddy Bat mascot and five other mascots, Indianapolis Colts caravan, food booths and free balloons.

For more information about Celebrate Memphis 2009 please visit www.uniontownshipinfo.com or call the Union Township office at 294-3077.