

?NWVFD hosting Fireman's Picnic

Written by Janna Ross

Wednesday, 09 July 2008 00:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 09 July 2008 14:11

? ?? ? The New Washington Fire Department will be hosting its annual Fireman's Picnic on July 11 and 12 at the Fireman's fairgrounds in New Washington.

World Famous fish sandwiches will be served starting Friday night at 5 p.m. Full fish dinners are also available as well as grilled hamburgers, hotdogs and bratwurst. There will also be a large selection of desserts and hand dipped ice cream. Friday night's free entertainment will be the Ross Country Jamboree, bring your lawn chairs.

Also on Friday, Parlor style Bingo will be played inside the firehouse. You must be over 18 years old to play. Guaranteed $500 payout on coverall game. A raffle drawing will also be held on Saturday with numerous door prizes and a $500 winner will be selected at 8 p.m.

Saturday will start with the annual parade at 12 noon. Contestants wishing to be in the parade need to line-up no later than 11:30 a.m. at the New Washington Elementary School parking lot. Dinners will be served starting immediately after the end of the parade.

In addition there will be craft booths, games and other activities throughout the day. The Red Cross Blood Mobile will be on the lot on Saturday collecting blood donations to help those in central Indiana affected by the recent flooding.

This is a great opportunity to come out and meet and catch up with old friends and enjoy good food and a great time.