

Two Pirates named to 2009 Football All-State Team

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 30 December 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 30 December 2009 09:25

The Pirate football team whom recently finished another successful season with a final record of 7-3 including going undefeated in the Mid-Southern Conference play for a third consecutive MSC title; had two players named Class 3A All-State.

Senior defensive lineman Clay Daniel and junior defensive lineman Jon Slaten have been named to the Indiana Football Coaches Association All-State Team, in their respective classes.

For a complete list of Indiana Football Coaches Association honorees, go to <http://ifca.zebras.net/ifca/index.cfm>.

For more information about Charlestown Pirate Football, go to www.CharlestownPiratePride.com/Football.htm.