

CPD Reserves to host car show and burn out contest August 15

Written by George Browning

Thursday, 29 July 2010 00:00 - Last Updated Thursday, 29 July 2010 06:19

The Charlestown Police Reserves will host their annual car show and burn out contest on Sunday, August 15 at the Clark County 4-H Fairgrounds.

The event will feature rods, customs and classics and trophies, dash plaques and prizes plus vendors, raffles and concessions. The event promises to be fun for the entire family!

There will also be a Southern Indiana Police Cruisers display contest.

The car show registration will be a $20 donation. Those who pre-register before August 10 will receive two entries for the 1995 Mustang they are giving away, a dash plaque and a t-shirt.

The burn out is open to any and all and will also be $20.

The car giveaway, a 1995 Ford Mustang, according to Albert "Tubby" Purcell, "the motor needs work but the body and interior are in good condition."

Pictures of the car will be available soon at www.ctownpd.com.

For more information regarding the CPD Reserves Car Show and Burn Out contest please contact Albert "Tubby" Purcell at 812-987-6259 or e-mail at CPD549@aol.com.

Information and registration for the car show and burn out can also be found at www.ctownpd.com.