

2012 Miss Clark County entry forms are now available at the Purdue Extension Office-Clark County. Entries are due in the Purdue Extension Office-Clark County by June 4.

The pageant is scheduled for Tuesday, June 26 at Providence High School Robinson Performing Arts Center. Miss Clark County will reign over the 2012 Clark County 4-H Fair July 13-21. Also, she will represent Clark County at the Indiana State Fair Queen Pageant in August.

The contest is based on interview, evening gown, and professional wear competition. Any Clark County young woman between the ages of 16 to 21 is eligible to participate. As of August 17, 2012 each contestant must be at least 16 years of age and cannot have had her 21st birthday. Contestant must be an active member of at least one worthwhile organization in her community, and is to be sponsored by a Clark County business and/or organization.

A number of prizes and awards will be presented to the winners as well as gift packages to all of the participants.

Entry forms are available from the Purdue Cooperative Extension Office-Clark County. The office is located at the Clark County 4-H Fairgrounds, 9608 Highway 62, Suite 1, Charlestown.

A $50 entry fee and two head shot photographs must accompany the entry.

Questions concerning the contest may be directed to Extension Educator Reba Colley at 812-256-4591.
