

Every visitor to the 2012 Scott County Fair will have the opportunity to enjoy some great entertainment at no charge at the Fair Pavilion.

The pavilion is located in front of the Scott County 4-H Building in the fairgrounds' southeast quadrant. Some seating is available, but folks are also welcome to bring their lawn chairs.

As scheduled, Sunday, July 15, will be "Gospel Night," at the pavilion. Bluegrass musicians will perform on Tuesday, July 17, and will feature Michael Cleveland, a nine-time National Fiddle Champion, as special guest.

On Wednesday night, July 18, rock and roll will take the stage, and on Friday, July 20, traditional country music will be heard.

The full schedule of performers includes:

SUNDAY, JULY 15

7:00 p.m.: The Bell Family.

7:45 p.m.: The Girls.

8:30 p.m.: Iron Sharpens Iron.

TUESDAY, JULY 17

7:00 p.m.: Josh Richards.

7:45 p.m.: James White and Deer Creek.

8:30 p.m.: Common Ground.

Special guest will be Michael Cleveland.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 18

7:00 p.m.: Hillbilly Rush.

7:45 to 9:45 p.m.: Two Day Romans.

FRIDAY, JULY 20

7:00 p.m.: Monday Night Special.

7:45 to 9:45 p.m.: Tommy Day and Cool Country.

The week's lineup of musical entertainment has been coordinated by Bobby Deal of Spare Change Music.

Y'all come and enjoy!