

Silver Creek hosted their first Football Homecoming since the 1940's last Friday night during halftime of the game against Clarksville.

During the homecoming festivities senior Nick Arbogast was crowned 2012 Football Homecoming King. The Queen was Remi Maxwell. She was not in attendance due to a prior commitment. Arbogast is pictured above with the flowers for Maxwell. According to the announcement she received her crown once she returned to school.