

Mother, Son from Charlestown arrested

Written by George Browning

Wednesday, 23 January 2013 00:00 -

During the evening hours of Sunday, January 20, troopers from the Indiana State Police Post at Sellersburg with the assistance of officers from the Charlestown Police Department executed a search warrant in the 200 block of Arlington Avenue in Charlestown.

Trooper Rob Caudill was granted a search warrant as part of an investigation into suspected illegal drug activity allegedly taking place at the residence. During the search, suspected marijuana and drug paraphernalia were seized.

Arrested were Ellen M. Johnson, 55, of Charlestown and her son Michael D. Campbell, 36, also of Charlestown.

Both subjects were incarcerated in the Clark County Jail on the charges of Maintaining a Common Nuisance, D Felony, Dealing in Marijuana, A Misdemeanor and Possession of Marijuana, A Misdemeanor.