

The Charlestown Post Office will participate in the National Letter Carriers Association's Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive. The food drive will be held this Saturday, May 11. The workers are encouraging the local community to participate in the food drive by bringing non-perishable items to the post office or by leaving a donation at your mailbox. Citizens wishing to participate who live on rural routes are asked to put their donation inside their mailboxes while citizens who resident in town are asked to put their donations next to the mailbox. If you would like to drop off your donation you may drop it off through next week during regular post office hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday or Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.
