

Founder's Day Prince and Princess crowned

Written by George Browning
Tuesday, 18 June 2013 00:00 -

The Founder's Day Prince and Princess contest was held on Saturday, June 15 at the Arts & Enrichment Center in Charlestown.

Fifteen beautiful young ladies participated in the Princess contest while five handsome young men wowed the audience in hopes of being crowned the 2013 Founder's Day Prince.

The 2013 Founder's Day Prince is Rhys Duncan. He is the son of Jeremy and Heather Duncan.

The 2013 Founder's Day Princess is Kayleigh Hagan. She is the daughter of Holly Soto and Jeremy Hagan.

Runners Up were also crowned. Prince- First place was Kolton McDonald and second place went to Bryton Horine. Kolton is the son of Keith and Brooke McDonald. Bryton is the son of George and Savannah Horine.

Princess- First place was Izzie Campbell and second place went to Ava Benner. Izzie is the daughter of Jimmy and Michelle Campbell. Ava is the daughter of Scott and Jennifer Benner.

Other Founder's Day Prince and Princess participants included: Kearstyn Barron, Audrey Braswell, Joslyn Chesser, Kimberlyn Doherty, Peyton Jones, Blair Kaelin, Abigail Keltner, Sarah Martin, Kylie McDonald, Charlie Shaw, Ashtyn Sheppard, Madison Semberg, Christopher Early and Carter Stephens.