

?Charlestown High School Theatre presents Johnny Brooke, A Ghost Story

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 23 October 2008 00:00 - Last Updated Thursday, 23 October 2008 13:34

? Get in the Halloween Spirit and prepare to ride an emotional roller coaster as the Charlestown High School Theatre Department brings a spine tingling performance of Johnny Brooke, A Ghost Story to their stage.

Go into the story of Johnny, a 17 year old senior from 1965 who died in the garage at Brooke Manor over 40 years ago. Follow the family who now lives in the supposedly haunted house as they discover the many mysteries that lie within the home.

Performances will be in the school's auditorium on Thursday, October 23 at 7 p.m., Saturday, October 25 at 7 p.m. and Sunday, October 26 at 2 p.m.

Doors open one hour before show times. Tickets are $7 for adults and $5 for students/seniors and can be purchased at the door.