? The Clark County Farm Bureau, Inc. will conduct a "Meet the Candidates" session on Tuesday, October 28, beginning at 6:30 p.m. in the Community Building at the Clark County 4-H Center (Highway 62 in Charlestown).

Federal, state and county candidates for office in the upcoming fall election are being invited to participate in this event.

The session is free of charge and the public is urged to attend. Those in attendance will be able to ask candidates questions from the floor or privately.

Questions about this public session may be directed to Judy Popp, President of the Clark County Farm Bureau, Inc., at 812-256-5870.
