

Traffic stop made-Dope Arrests made by ISP

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 18 December 2013 00:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 18 December 2013 09:15

On Tuesday morning, December 10 shortly before 3 a.m., Trooper Rob Caudill and Trooper Nathan Abbott of the Indiana State Police Post at Sellersburg arrested Donald Eugene York, Jr., 47, of Lexington, Indiana, and Amy Michelle Hether, 39, of Charlestown, for numerous drug related offenses.

The arrests were the result of a traffic stop conducted by the troopers on State Road #403 at Greenleaf Road in Sellersburg. During the traffic stop for Left of Center, troopers searched the 2002 Chevrolet Silverado driven by Amy Hether, and located Methamphetamine, Controlled Substances and Paraphernalia.

Both subjects were incarcerated at the Clark County Jail and are being held without bond.

Donald E. York, Jr., was charged with Dealing in a Controlled Substance, B Felony; Dealing in Methamphetamine, B Felony; Possession of Controlled Substance, D Felony; Possession of Methamphetamine, D Felony; Maintaining a Common Nuisance, D Felony and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, A Misdemeanor.

Amy M. Hether was charged with Dealing in a Controlled Substance, B Felony; Possession of a Controlled Substance, D Felony; Possession of Methamphetamine, D Felony; Maintaining a Common Nuisance, D Felony and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, A Misdemeanor.

The Charlestown City Police Department assisted in this investigation.