?? The Charlestown Pirate Wrestling Team hosted the Mid-Southern Conference Wrestling Duals Meet this past Saturday, December 13, in Bill Dunn Sports Arena, and continued their dominance of the Mid-Southern Conference.

The Pirates pounded Salem (66-6), Eastern (78-6), Corydon (66-18), and Scottsburg (51-30), now winning 30 consecutive Mid-Southern Conference matches, a streak dating back to December of 2003. The success of this team of Pirate Grapplers did not stop there, the New Albany Bulldogs also participated in Saturday's matches and were also defeated by the Pirates in 10 out of 14 bouts.

The Pirates current team record is 10 wins and 4 loses, including wins over their last six opponents.

The Pirate Grapplers next in action, attempting to keep their M.S.C. streak alive, when they host Eastern on Wednesday in Bill Dunn Sports Arena. The Pirates will also travel to Jeffersonville on Friday and Saturday, December 19 and 20 for the annual Jeffersonville Classic.
