? Even though the Pirate basketball team was unable to successfully defend its 2007 Holiday Tournament crown, sophomore guard Steven Coyne had a coming to varsity basketball life of sorts during this year's Silver Creek Holiday Tournament.

Coyne took advantage of extra playing time in game one of the tournament versus Silver Creek, scoring 16 points and making an impact on defense.

Charlestown High School varsity Coach Sean Smith rewarded Coyne the following night in game two versus Clarksville; where Coyne entered the varsity starting line-up and contributed another outstanding performance including nine points.

The Pirates suffered losses in both contests but showed more improvements in various areas of the game, and by several players.

As a result of Coyne's tournament performances, he was named by participant school coaches to the 48th Annual Silver Creek Holiday Tourney All-Tournament Team (the only Pirate to be named this year).
