

Inaugural "Orange/Blue Blowout" games to be held at SCMS

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 12 February 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Thursday, 12 February 2009 13:34

Silver Creek Middle School is proud to present an incredible evening of fun and entertainment on Friday, February 27 at 6 p.m. in the gymnasium at the school.

As an opportunity to raise funds for academic school trips and to make a donation to the Leukemia Foundation in honor of one of Silver Creek Middle School's former students, Jonnae Taylor, the following events will take place: first, a basketball game between the school's eighth grade girls and eighth grade boys. A trophy plaque will be given to the winner to be displayed in the school showcase; secondly, a basketball game between an "orange team" and a "blue team" of co-ed eighth grade basketball team members. A trophy plaque will be given to the winner of this game, also to be displayed in the showcase and thirdly, they will hold a basketball game between their co-ed eighth grade team members and their "teacher/staff all stars." This game will be highlight the evening and a "Dragon Rights" trophy will be presented and showcased for the winning team.

Entertainment at half times and between games will be provided by the Silver Creek jazz band, the Royal Sensation dance team, SCMS cheerleaders and the singing of the National Anthem and the Silver Creek fight song will be presented by "The Singing Dragons."

Disc jockeys from Spin Around Sound will be the Masters of Ceremonies and provide music to rock the Dragon Den.

The concession stand will be serving Vicario's Pizza, hot dogs, nachos and snacks. The cost of the event is $3 per person.

Each of the school's sixth, seventh and eighth grade classes are asked to show their spirit by filling the stands with their classmates and the winning grade will display a banner in its hallway showing that grade to have the true "Heart of the Dragon."

The public is invited to attend this great evening of fun. For more information please call the school at 246-4421.