The Court Appointed Special Advocate Program (CASA- The Voice of Clark County's Children) is seeking community and church groups in Clark County to speak to about the CASA Program. The CASA Program trains volunteers to advocate for the best interests of abused and neglected children.

A five-minute program, a nine-minute program or a 12-minute program is available for groups interested in learning more about opportunities to volunteer in the CASA program.

Please contact Elizabeth Wilson at 812-285-0743.
