

Lady Pirate alumni experience March Madness

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 01 April 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 01 April 2009 12:27

Lady Pirate basketball alumnus Kelsie Thrasher (2005) and Lindsey Davis (2007) have experienced their fair share of March Madness during their college careers.

Thrasher, who is a starter at Kentucky Christian University, has now won her third NCCAA National Championship (2007, 2008, 2009) with the Lady Knights. She was recently named Mid-East 2009 Regional Player of the Year, 1st Team NCCAA All-American Team and the 2009 NCCAA All-Tournament Team.

Davis, who plays for the Kaskaskia College Blue Angels, finished fourth in the NCJAA Division 1 Tournament in Salina, Kansas. The Blue Angels are coming off their best season in history, winning their conference with a record of 16-0 and winning the Region 24 tournament to qualify for the NCJAA Final Four.

For more information about Pirate and Lady Pirate Athletic Alumni, log onto the Pirate Pride website at www.CharlestownPiratePride.com/AthleticAlumni.htm.