The annual Showcase of Fashions, sponsored by the Clark County Extension Homemakers and Purdue Extension– Clark County, is scheduled for Sunday, June 28, beginning at 2 p.m. This year's location will be the Clark County REMC on Highway 60 in Sellersburg.

The contest is for individuals who sew and are interested in competing at the county and state level. The state contest is held in conjunction with the Indiana State Fair which is held in August each year.

The Showcase is open to all Clark County residents.

Categories include: Family Outfits; Dresses; Coat or Suit; Separates; My Choice; Sewing for others, Adult Garments (over 18 years); Sewing for Others/Children's Garments 0-5 years & 6-12 years; Sewing for Others/Teen Garments 13-17 years; Wedding Gowns/Bridesmaids/Formals and Embroidery Embellished Handmade Garment.

The county-only categories include Creative Touch to Ready-Wear, Wearable Art. The categories are no longer divided by age. However, there is a special county category for seamstresses under the age of 18. The Divisions are non-professional and professional seamstresses. Garments modeled must have been made after September 1, 2008.

Entry forms are available at the Purdue Extension Office in Clark County.

Questions should be directed to Joyce Dickson, contest chairman, 294-4087 or Reba Colley, Extension Educator, at 256-4591. Entry forms are due June 25.

If you sew, now is the time to show it off!
