A fundraiser is being planned by at the Chelsea Church of God on Saturday, July 11, from 1 to 7 p.m. at the church by organizer Rick Mullins.

There will be a yard sale, gospel concert, cookout with hamburgers and hotdogs and much more planned to help raise funds to purchase new seating for the church's newest building.

The line-up of featured groups will be as follows:

- 1 p.m. - Mike Monroe – Called Out
- 2 p.m. - Nicky Spicer and family
- 3 p.m. - Mike Mullins – The Highlights
- 4 p.m. - Jeff Mullins – The Wayside Travelers
- 5 p.m. - The Mullins Sisters.
- 6 p.m. - The Stacy's

The community is invited to come out and take part in the sale, the music, fellowship and come and see the new church building that has been built recently.

Those wishing to make a donation to help in this fundraiser is urged to call the church office and leave a message at 1-812-866-5927 or contact Rick Mullins at 1-812-786-4278.

Those that can not make the event but would like to make a donation may do so by sending a check made out to Chelsea Church of God, and dropping it by The Giveaway office at 183 E. McClain Avenue in Scottsburg, and on the memo line of checks write in: Chairs or seating donation, and give to Children's Pastor Marcus Amos.

The church is located at 6231 South State Road 62, east of Lexington, and about 4.7 miles south of the State Road 56 and 62 intersection.
