The Charlestown Youth Lady Pirates will be holding try-outs for its fourth and fifth grade girl's travel teams, Thursday, August 20 from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the Charlestown Civic Center.

These try-outs will only be for girl's starting fourth and fifth grade and attending any Charlestown elementary school. There is no cost for the try-outs and all girls that meet the above requirements are encouraged to attend. The teams compete in various leagues and tournaments running from early fall through the end of March 2010. Most, if not all tournaments and league fees are paid through sponsorships, fundraising and generous donations.

For more information please contact Mike Crider or Chad Crace at 246-9808.

The CYLP is a girl's youth basketball league made up of players that attend Charlestown schools and is run by parents in the community volunteering their time and talents to help these girl's become better players on and off the court.
