

?Hunt for History

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 15 July 2008 00:00 - Last Updated Tuesday, 22 July 2008 15:08

Bart Kay presents Mary "Jeannie" Hartsook of the Salem High School SADD and students with about $7,500 in gold at the Courthouse in Salem from the Hunt for History.

The hunt ran for the last year and went unclaimed by treasure hunters, so the gold bars, originally valued at $5000, but now appreciated in value, were presented to the group who sold the most maps for the hunt. The bars have since been replaced with silver so that hunters can continue their search.