

St. Vincent's awarded WCMH; press conference being planned for Tuesday morning

Written by George Browning

Monday, 11 January 2010 00:00 - Last Updated Monday, 11 January 2010 15:37

The Washington County Memorial Hospital got good news Monday afternoon as St. Vincent's officially won a bid to claim possession of the hospital.

Last Friday Scheck out of Seymour placed a bid on WCMH, which forced the two sides into an auction ceremony in U.S. Bankruptcy court Monday morning in New Albany and St. Vincent won.

Plans are being made for a Tuesday morning press conference to announce what that means for local employees and patients.

Be sure to visit www.gbpnews.com Tuesday afternoon or Wednesday morning for an updated story.